

Students Prep for Math Contest

SAN JOSE, Calif. - Elementary school students who placed in the top 10 percent of San Jose, Calif.-based MathEdge's Primary Math World Contest are currently training to compete in the Indonesia International Mathematics Competition, to be held in Bali, Indonesia, July 18-23. The team (shown above) includes Shopnavo Biswas (third from right), a fifth grader from Ardenwood Elementary School in Fremont, Calif.