
Team Tryouts Scheduled For World Math Contest

By a Staff Reporter

Team tryouts in Silicon Valley for an international mathematics competition for primary students will be held Feb. 10 and Feb. 12, from 7 p.m.-8:15 p.m. at the Quinlan Community Center, 10185 North Stelling Road, Cupertino, Calif.

Students who were born after Sept. 1, 1995, and attend the seventh grade or lower are invited to try out for the USA-Silicon Valley team.

The “International Math Contest” will be held in Hong Kong in July. Those selected on the Silicon Valley team will be sponsored for five days of room and board and local tours in Hong Kong.

Register online with the city of Cupertino Parks and Recreation department at <http://reg4fun.cupertino.org/econnect> (activity 38080 for Feb. 10, activity 38081 for Feb. 14).

For sample problems and contest information, visit MathEdge, 7246 Sharon Dr., San Jose, for an open house Jan. 25 from 1 p.m.-4 p.m.

Further information is also available at: www.mathedge.org, by calling (408)725-2680, or by emailing: mathedge@gmail.com.
